

First Dollar Credit

The first dollar credit is given on any real estate parcel on which at least one improvement, owned by the land owner, is located.

The first dollar credit is shown on the property tax bills as a reduction in property taxes due. For taxpayers who pay their taxes in two installments, the credit is applied equally to each installment.